FAVORS DUTY ON LUMBER

ORIENTAL LABOR ENTERS INTO HIS ARGUMENT.

Competition of Canada, Where Poorly

Paid Labor Finds Employment in Lumber Mills. Washington, May 1.-A plea against free lumber and a story of Oriental Labor figuring in the difference of cost be tween the two sides of the Canadian boundary line, was the substance of a speech made in the senate today by Senator Piles of Washington Mr. Piles contended that a tariff sufficient to save the American manufacturer the United States market for his low grade lumber and shingles will make it possible for him to utilize ev ery part of the tree. If this market were taken possession of by the Canadian manufacturer, the Canadian lumberman, he said, would be obliged to leave a large percentage of the tree in the forest, a total loss and a constant fire menace to the standing timber.

In Washington, he pointed out, lum ber is the principal industry, employ-ing 110,000 men with average annual exceeding $69,000,000. The Washington state legislature, commercial bodies, labor unions and banking interests have urged the retention of the duty on lumber and increased duty on shingles. The differences in the cost of stumpage in British Columbia and in Washington, he said, was about $1.50 per thousand. While the shin-gle industry had decreased in Washington since 1905, its increase in British Columbia has been phenomenal.

There was, he said, a material difference in the cost of labor, owing principally to the use of upward of 75 per cent of Oriental Jabor in British Columbia. Despite Oriental labor mills of equal capacity on both side of the boundary employ practically the same number of men. There was a difference of approximately $1 per thousand on water freight rates to California ports, as British-Columbia can ship in foreign vessels while Washington must use American bottoms in the coastwise trade. Logging also costs more on this side, 1,100 miles of logging railroad being necessary in Washington.

Free lumber, he said, would stimu late the development of Canadian prov inces and be a detriment to the business interests of this country. Mr. Piles declared that practically the only persons seeking a lumber tariff reduc tion are American owners of timber in Arles, France, May 3.—Count de La Canada and he presented an appeal aulx, the French aeronaut, and a from the Washington Forest Fire association against any reduction. He ex hibited an original proposed contrac of sale that Canadian lumbermen had submitted to American consumers in which they stipulate that one-half of leg was broken, while his companion | the reduction in duty shall be paid to

MUCH OF THE REPUBLICAN FRUIT CROP IS SAVED

DAMAGE NOT AS GREAT AS AT FOR THE PURPOSE OF ORGANIZ-FIRST REPORTED.

Growers Look For Secondary Buds to Make Up a Part of the Loss-Some Districts Not Injured.

Careful investigation of the damage lone the local fruit crop by the recent frosts has not been completed. There is, however, a belief that the peach crop has been damaged at least 50 per cent over that of last year. This does not necessarily mean that only half the amount of last year's shipments will be realized this season as a large increase was anticipated. Manager Forristall of the Ogden Fruit Growers' association stated today that he thought there would be at least 50 carloads of peaches and mixed fruit shipped from Ogden, notably more. There were 104 cars of peaches shipped last year. The peach crop suffered the most, although the Napoleon white cherry was hard hit. Other fruits, including the Windsor and other varieties of cherry were but little damaged. Apples, pears, apricots and plums surviv ed in almost every instance and prunes were not far enough along to withstanding the damage, and prob-

sustain much injury. One redeeming feature of the situation may be the development of what are termed secondary buds. Where the forward buds have been destroyed, these dormant buds of secondary growth will probably develop into fruit and make something of a crop after all. Where forward buds develop without hinderance, the dormant buds wither away, being of comparatively low vitality, and having appar ently no other other purpose than to meet an emergency like the present

Reports from Pleasant View are to tional Peace congress was opened forthe effect that hardly any damage was 'mally here today. Orchestra hall was done and the same news has been received in regard to the Twelfth street district.

North Ogden seems to have suffer ed most and there is a probability that not more than an eighth of the anticipated peach crop will be realized. The situation in the Sand Ridge district is still in question. The first reports stated that there was little of the peach crop left. Later reports, however, are to the effect that this is probably not the case and many of the administration. the growers in that district are of the opinion that the amount of damage nounced, "A world petition to the third will be quite small.
